Seasonal products available

- Travis Smith thanked LTB for judging a USA Army Culinary Arts competition. Twelve members are now in Virginia, USA, at a competition.
- The Chaine des Rotisseurs has a dinner at least every two months. The last one was at the Grand Hyatt Hotel. President Paul reported that the dinner was quite innovative. The next dinner is at the Renaissance Hotel.
- Members leaving: Conrad Wermers, 26 years in Korea; Wolfgang Sesser
- Seoul Food and Hotel, April 24-27 www.seoulfood.or.kr
- International Chef's Day, October, 2007. President Paul reported that a LARGE event is in the making and will report to the Board and then to the Membership on the details.

Elections

- President Paul as for Nominations from the floor three [3] times, receiving none, Nominations were closed.

President Paul then read the names of those running for each position. Since there were no contested positions, President Paul asked for a Vote of Acclamation [noun, Etymology: Latin acclamation-, acclamatio, from acclamare, 1. a loud eager expression of approval, praise, or assent 2 : an overwhelming affirmative vote by cheers, shouts, or applause rather than by ballot]. The VOTE Passed
